Happy Resurrection Day!

Welcome to The Church at Las Vegas. We'd like to thank you for choosing to be here to worship with us. Each person's presence is an encouragement to others in the congregation and a much needed declaration of faith in today's world. We trust that you will be equally blessed by today's services.

If you are a visitor here today, again, welcome. Please fill out a guest card and place it in the offering basket as it is passed. If you have any questions about the services, please ask either one of our ministers or a member of our congregation. We hope you'll come again.

"RECOGNIZE THE SACRIFICE"

When the Boulder Dam (now Hoover Dam) was built, it was the largest in the world. As is common on such projects, there were the inevitable accidents and some workmen lost their lives. When the dam was complete, they put a plaque into the wall. On it they inscribed the names of the workmen who had died during construction. The plaque begins, "These died that the desert might rejoice and blossom as the rose." So Christ died that the dry and arid souls of men might be refreshed and renewed and turned from total waste to useful service.
