

Welcome to The Church at Las Vegas.

We would like to welcome, once again, all of the members of this congregation. We appreciate your faithful and dedicated attendance. You are truly a blessing to us.

We would also like to extend a warm welcome to all of our guests here today. We are pleased to have the opportunity to worship with you. If you are a first-time visitor, we would ask you to please fill out a guest card and place it in the offering basket as it is passed. We want to be sure to welcome you personally.

Thank you for being here and we hope you'll come again.

Please Keep In Prayer:

BILL KLEPPETSCH

Praise the Lord that Bill Kleppetsch went through his heart procedure with flying colors and was released from the hospital the day after his operation. Please continue to pray that Bill will have a complete recovery.

THOSE NOT HERE TODAY

There are many in the congregation that are out of town or physically sick today. Please pray for their safe return and/or their comfort in dealing with their illness.

A poor old widow, living in the Scottish Highlands, was called upon one day by a gentleman who had heard that she was in need. The old lady complained of her condition and remarked that her son was in Australia and doing well. "But does he do nothing to help you?" inquired the visitor. "No, nothing," was the reply. "He writes me regularly once a month, but only sends me a little picture with his letter." The gentleman asked to see one of the pictures that she had received and found in each one of them a draft for ten pounds.

This is the condition of many of God's children. He has given us many "exceeding great and precious promises," which we either are ignorant of or fail to appropriate. Many of them seem to be pretty pictures of an ideal peace and rest, but are not appropriated as practical helps in daily life. And not one of these promises is more neglected than that of the assurance of salvation. An open Bible places God's promises within reach of all, and we may appropriate the blessing which such a knowledge brings.

OUR PROGRAM OF SERVICES

For your convenience, we try to be timely in our services. Please help us in this endeavor by taking a seat and coming to attention at the sound of the piano. Also, please silence all cell phones. Thank you for your help.
