We'd like to welcome you this morning to The Church at Las Vegas! If this is your first time with us, whether you are visiting from another place, or right here from Las Vegas we hope you feel right at home. We're glad you're our guest and would you please fill out a guest card and place it in the offering basket as it is passed this morning so may acknowledge your presence.

Our goals this morning are to worship and praise God, remember our Lord and Savior Jesus during the Lord's Supper, listen to God's Word, and then go out and live for His glory this week!

FAMILIARITY OR INTIMACY?

Familiarity and intimacy are not the same. Each has a value in life, certainly in married life, but one is no substitute for the other. If one is confused for the other, we have the basis for major human and marital unrest. In marriage, familiarity is inescapable. It happens almost imperceptibly. Intimacy is usually hard to come by. It must be deliberately sought and opened up and responded to. Familiarity brings a degree of ease and comfort. Intimacy anxiously searches for deep understanding and personal appreciation.
