Welcome to The Church at Las Vegas. We'd like to thank everyone here today for choosing to worship with us. Each person here is an encouragement to others in this congregation, and we trust that you will be equally blessed by today's services.

If you are a visitor here today, again, welcome. Please fill out a guest card and place it in the offering basket as it is passed. If you are currently looking for a church home, we hope you will consider placing your fellowship with us. And if you have any questions about the services or our creed, please ask the minister or a member of our congregation. We hope you'll come again.

COUNTERFEIT GOSPEL

Counterfeit money is lacking in authority—it does not have the backing of the federal government. A good counterfeiter can dupe some people into accepting his copy-work as legitimate currency. But eventually, when the fake money is brought before the authorities, it will be found false and sentenced to destruction.

Likewise, a false gospel lacks something very important: the authority of Christ. The preacher of a false gospel may believe it and persuade (others) to accept its message. Nevertheless, in the final analysis, there is no salvation in this fake gospel.
