Welcome to The Church at Las Vegas! We are thankful that you have chosen to assemble with us this Lord's Day. We believe that each person should serve as an encouragement to each other as we worship our awesome God together!

If this is your first-time with us, we would ask you to please fill out a guest card and place it in the offering basket as it is passed. If you have any questions, please ask to be directed to either of the preachers. We hope that you will be blessed by your time here today and that the name of Jesus will be glorified!

What To Do With Loneliness

People today will admit any problem—drugs, divorce, alcoholism—but there's one admission that people are loath to make, whether they're a star on television or someone who fixes televisions in a repair shop. It's just too embarrassing. It penetrates too deeply to the core of who they are. People don't want to admit that they are (sometimes) lonely. Loneliness is such a humiliating malady that it ought to have its own politically correct euphemism—'relationally challenged'—or its own telethon, anything to make it safer to confess. Because right now it's a taboo, an affliction of losers and misfits. And to be honest, of respectable people like you and me. Source: Lee Strobel, God's Outrageous Claims, p. 118-134.

FOOD CLOSET:

If you know of someone that could use a bag of food please talk with Rich or Joan Martin. Our food closet is very well stocked right now and we need to be sharing it with those that are less fortunate. This can be used as an opportunity to talk to them about the church as well as meeting their physical needs!
