

Sunday, May 30, 2010

Welcome to The Church at Las Vegas. We are excited to see everyone here this morning and to share this Lord's Day with you. Each and every person in the body of Christ is important and we should all strive to attend each planned assembly of the church. It is such a vital part of the Christian life, both as a means to be strong Christians ourselves and also to encourage others.

To our first-time guests, we would ask you to please fill out a guest card and place it in the offering basket as it is passed. If you have any questions or concerns about anything please ask someone next to you. If they can't answer please ask either of our preachers.

WHAT I'LL BE DOING FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day is a day of remembering. Remembering can be curse when you've spent years trying to forget. It's even worse when you get mad at yourself for not being able to remember. It's strange that you forget so many things you want to remember and remember so much that you really want to forget.

Memorial Day is not a day for self-evaluation or selfish thoughts. So I turn my remembrances to other people, places, and things. But above all this, I remember people. Faces, personalities, and human events still crowd my days and nights with pleasure and pain. I can remember entire conversations and events in explicit detail. I cannot remember the names of more than a few, and I don't know why. Shouldn't this be the other way around? Of the hundreds I knew I kick myself for remembering so few. Especially on this Memorial Day when I should be able to remember each and every one. They are the ones who paid for this Memorial Day. This is their day. I will not spoil it by forgetting even one of their number. God help me, I will remember. From this day forth I will carry their memory and spirit with me as a living memorial to their sacrifice and dedication to God, country, duty, and honor. They shall not pass gently into the night as long as I have breath in my body to shout to the world... REMEMBER REMEMBER ... For God's sake Remember.
